EXCEED HIS HOPES

GOVERNMENT DEFICIENCY IN REVENUES FIGURED UP.

It Will Fall Below Secretary Carlisle's Estimate—A Material Decrease in the Amount of Pension Payments Expected. Whisky Month Counted Upon to Pay up the Tariff on Bonded Spirits and Help Out.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—There are three reasons for the belief that the deficiency in the revenues of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, will be less than Secretary Carlisle's estimate. In his statement before the house judiciary committee, Jan. 25, the secretary expressed the opinion that the deficit for the year would be $78,000,000 or $79,000,000, but the conditions have changed somewhat since, and now the opinion of experts, who base their estimates upon the best data obtainable, is that the deficiency will be found not to exceed $70,000,000.

This conclusion is reached independent of any increase in the receipts from internal revenue, incident to a probable increase in the duties on the liquor, tobacco and other schedules of the pending tariff bill. The closest and most careful estimates of receipts from customs places the amount at the close of the year at $118,000,000, of which $72,537,425 had already been received. It is expected that until the new tariff bill becomes a law there will not be any considerable improvement in imports, except to meet the current needs. The merchants during the last year, and particularly during the last six months, it is argued, have been pursuing a very cautious policy as to purchases abroad, and as a result the need of replenishing their stocks of goods, which have been reduced to a very low point.

Assuming that this conservative policy will be continued and that the customs will continue to slowly decrease for the remainder of the month of the year, the aggregate would probably still reach $115,000,000. The receipts from internal revenue are closely estimated at $140,000,000, influenced by pending legislation, and the customs at $115,000,000, making the total receipts to be $260,000,000. The civil and miscellaneous disbursements will probably reach $200,000,000, of which the bounty on sugar will take $10,000,000 and possibly a little more. The disbursements throughout the year department is thought will be about $200,000,000, and of this amount about $15,000,000 have already been paid on account of river and harbor appropriations. The cost of the civil service, including payments for the construction of war vessels and premiums on the same, it is estimated, will amount to about $38,000,000.

The Indian service is expected to cost approximately $10,000,000. Last year the payments on the account were abnormally large, amounting to $10,000,000 paid to the Choctaws for lands. A material decrease is anticipated in the amount of pension payments and it is not expected that March will be about $10,000,000, and of this amount about $15,000,000 have already been paid on account of river and harbor appropriations. The cost of the civil service, including payments for the construction of war vessels and premiums on the same, it is estimated, will amount to about $38,000,000.

THE PRESIDENT APPROVES.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The president has approved the resolution authorizing the U. S. Howard to accept the decoration of the French Republic, and the act appropriating $45,000 for the rescue of the armament and wreck of the United States ship, the Albatross, which was wrecked on the coast of France.

WHEAT AND CORN.
Department Estimates of Crops. Quantity on Hand and Comparative Total.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The statistical returns of the department of agriculture for March consist principally of estimates of the distribution of wheat and corn, the amount remaining in farmers' hands, the proportion of merchantable crop and the average price of both the merchantable and unmerchantable. The report is based upon returns of a corps of correspondents of each county of the several states and territories, and also by an independent corps of lumbermen reporting through the states agents. The returns of the correspondents of both the wheat and corn are for the month of March, and the wheat is for the month of March, and the corn is for the month of March. The wheat is for the month of March, and the corn is for the month of March.

The returns also indicate that considerable quantities of the wheat now in farmers' hands is of poor quality. The wheat of 1893, and especially from the crop of 1893, is of poor quality. Such stocks have been held principally by large growers. Some damage to such stores is reported from Michigan and Washington. The indicated stock of wheat in farmers' hands is 114,000,000 bushels or 28.8 per cent of the volume of the crop of 1893. This is 10 per cent less than the estimate for March 1 last year, and nearly 20,000,000 bushels less than the average for the past eight years. The amount of wheat in farmers' hands in the eleven principal wheat growing states is about 73,000,000 bushels or 63.8 per cent of the amount in producers' hands in the country. The wheat of 1893, and especially from the crop of 1893, is of poor quality. Such stocks have been held principally by large growers. Some damage to such stores is reported from Michigan and Washington. The indicated stock of wheat in farmers' hands is 114,000,000 bushels or 28.8 per cent of the volume of the crop of 1893.

The proportion of merchantable crop is 52.6 per cent, of a present average value of $2.49 cents per bushel. The unmerchantable averages 32.2 cents per bushel. The official and commercial estimates of the wheat's wheat crop for 1893 make $24,000,000. This is 10 per cent less than for any year in the past five years, and of 1893. The wheat of 1893, and especially from the crop of 1893, is of poor quality. Such stocks have been held principally by large growers. AGAINST THE INCOME TAX.
NEW YORK, March 10.—A number of gentlemen identified with the woolen and dry goods industries in this city called on Senator David B. Hill at the New Netherlands hotel, Fifty-ninth street and Sixth avenue, today. The conference lasted fully an hour and the Wilson tariff bill was the only topic discussed. "Now, gentlemen," said Mr. Hill, as soon as all were seated in a parlor on the main floor, "I suppose you have come to speak to me about the tariff and I am ready to hear anything you may have to say."

One of the visitors said: "Now, we all object to the income tax part of it." "Oh, I realized long ago," replied Senator Hill, "that the income tax was a mistake. I have always been opposed to an income tax. The representatives from the south and extreme west seem to be in favor of it. I don't think their arguments are sound or can be defended. I hope we will be able to induce congress not to pass it, but I cannot predict."

ARMOR-PLATE TESTS.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The navy department has received and proceeded to test the first armor plates that have been completed by the new and expensive Harveyizing plant of the Carnegie works. The tests are experimental plates submitted to undergo trial to demonstrate the proficiency of the new plant in the production of armor plates. The experiment was conducted at the government proving station at Indian Head. Only one plate was tested, that one being 10 inches thick and 8 by 10 feet.

Three shots were fired from a distance of 300 feet. The first was a Carpenter 8-inch shell, little longer than the ordinary 8-inch shell, which struck the plate about a foot from the top and the same distance from one side, with a velocity of 1,641 feet. The point of the shell was flattened, and the fragments scattered. Two slight cracks were inflicted on the plate, neither of them touching the rivet holes. An 11-inch shell, the second shot, was fired from a distance of 300 feet. This also struck near the upper edge and was shattered, its point being welded into the plate. The shell was broken into two pieces, the top piece being 10 inches thick and 8 by 10 feet. The point of the shell was flattened, and the fragments scattered. Two slight cracks were inflicted on the plate, neither of them touching the rivet holes.

MUST GO BACK.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—An interesting alien contract labor case was today decided by Commissioner Stuart of the immigration bureau. It appears that Ch. Barl Fischer, a Russian subject, 35 years old, arrived in the port of New York, Feb. 10, and was arrested by the board of special inquiry as a contract laborer. It is admitted that Fischer was an assisted emigrant, his brother-in-law, a penitentiary maker, in Philadelphia, having paid his passage and having promised him work on arrival.

In view of his being assisted in addition to there having evidently been an understanding that he was to be employed in the penitentiary, the commissioner holds that he comes within the prohibition of the statute, and therefore directs that he be deported to the old country where he came at the expense of the steamship company bringing him to the United States.

THE PRESIDENT APPROVES.
WASHINGTON, March 10.—The president has approved the resolution authorizing the U. S.
